ninth and tenth times this season. Charlottesville leads the season series 5-3.

- Culpeper has won the last three meetings in the series, their longest win streak in series history. Two of their three wins, however, came after Charlottesville clinched the division championship and made some significant lineup changes.
- Four of the eight games this season have been decided by one run, including Monday's contest in Culpeper. Monday's game was called due to inclement weather after six innings despite Charlottesville scoring four runs in the top of the seventh.
- Charlottesville outscored Covington by an average of four runs per game in their five wins on the year. The Cavaliers outscored the 'Sox by an average of two.
- Charlottesville will face Culpeper in the postseason for the first time. Culpeper is in only their second year as an organization and collected their first playoff win in program history on Thursday.

COLBY JACKS:

- Colby Wallace clinched the Valley League's batting title for the regular season after finishing the year with a .370 average. His average was six points better than Strasburg's Connor Chisholm, who finished second.
- Wallace is not the first East Carolina hitter to rank among Charlottesville's best. Thomas Francisco, who was drafted in 2021, and Carter Cunningham, a '24 draftee, own two of Charlottesville's three best single-season batting averages - .409 and .404, respectively.
- With eight more at-bats in order to qualify, Wallace will sit fifth on that list.
- In addition to his outstanding average, Wallace leads Charlottesville in on-base percentage (.464, 5th in VBL) and ranks among the team's best in slugging percentage (.489, 3rd), runs (21, T-4th), doubles (6, T-2nd), and walks (15, 5th).

MEN ON THE MOUND:

- Charlottesville completed the regular season as the Valley's best pitching team, ranking as the league's best in ERA (3.87), opponent batting average (.216), and WHIP (1.38).
- They also rank among the league's best in strikeouts per nine (9.3, 5th), walks per nine (5.1, 5th), and strikeouts per walk (1.8, 3rd).
- Due to innings requirements, no Tom Sox pitchers qualified for the regular season ERA title. If Charlottesville's top starters did, Bobby Olsen would lead the league in ERA (1.42 in 19 innings) and Chase Stryker would rank second (2.28 in 27.2 innings). James Hays would rank third with a 3.28 ERA in 24.2 innings.

SCOUTING THE CAVS:

- Culpeper enters this series as the third seed in the South Division. They defeated the two-seed

Harrisonburg Turks 9-4 in Thursday's wild-card game.

- Culpeper finished the regular season with an even 20-20 record. They finished the season 11th in the league in batting average (.247) and sixth in ERA (5.38).
- Culpeper's 35 home runs tied for the league regular season lead, along with Strasburg.
- Division III player of the year Connor Maryniak led Culpeper's qualifying batters with a .337 average, which ranked seventh in the league. Jon Howard's six home runs tied for the fourth-best mark in the league.
- Brok Eddy led Culpeper's qualifying arms with a 4.59 ERA in 33.1 innings. Carter Rasmussen led the league with 47 strikeouts on the year.
- The 'Cavs swept the most recent South Player of the Week honors, with Bryce Demory (8-for-25, 4 HR, 11 RBI) and William Wian (11 IP, 1 ER, 13 K) taking home player and pitcher of the week honors, respectively.

ALL-STARS AND PROSPECTS, OH MY!

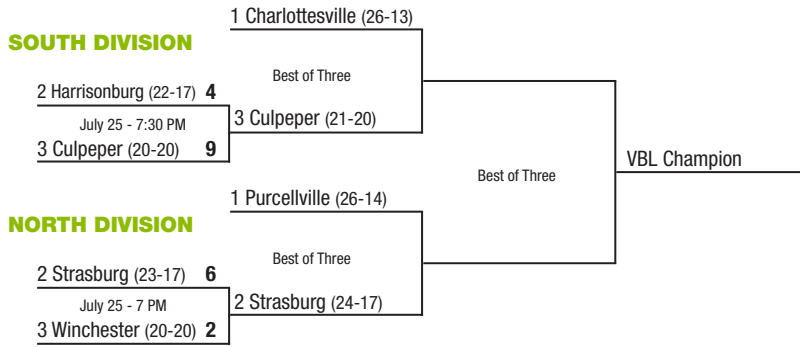

- Tom Sox represented a solid core of the rosters for both the VBL's NACSB Prospect Games roster, who competed on June 24, and the South division All-Star roster, which faced the North on June 30's game.
- Included on the prospect games roster were pitchers Daniel Powell, Ethan Sutton, and Ryan Grzesiak alongside position players Cade Belyeu (who could not compete due to an injury) and Colby Wallace. The VBL fell 12-10 to the NYCBL.
- The All-Star roster included position players Johnnie Lopez, Robbie Lavey, and Ethan Gibson alongside pitchers Daniel Powell and Ayden Alexander. Alexander took the spot of Marco Levari, who was unable to participate after hitting his innings limit.
- Head Coach Randy Tomlin served as the manager for both squads, courtesy of Charlottesville having the South's best record through the respective selection dates.

TITLETOWN:

- The Tom Sox have been the Valley's most successful team since winning their first title in 2017.
- The 'Sox have appeared in all but one championship series since '17 (2021) and have won the league title in three of those six years.
- Charlottesville's 190-99 record since the start of the 2017 season is the best in the VBL.
- Charlottesville's six championship appearances and three titles since 2017 are both the most in the VBL over that span. They are tied with Strasburg in both titles won and championship appearances if including the entirety of Charlottesville's nine seasons of existence.
- The Tom Sox have won the league title in alternating seasons since their first title in 2017.
